

Activity 9: Candidate Feedback, Salary Research and the Offer Letter

Duration: 40 minutes Roles: Daniel Lim (HR) and Priya Nair (hiring manager), working in pairs

Scenario

After a mentoring follow-up call, the panel chose Serene Ng. Zhi Wei Chua was not selected and asked for feedback. Prepare his feedback, check the salary against the SGD 8,500 - 10,500 band, and draft Serene's offer.

Goal and output

A feedback email to Zhi Wei Chua, a sourced salary note, and Serene Ng's offer letter with unconfirmed terms as placeholders.

Tools and data to use

Feedback Coach | Researcher (or Copilot Chat) | Copilot in Outlook and Word | Zhi Wei's interview summary

Use only the practice files supplied. Never enter real candidate information or company-confidential details into Copilot.

Step by step

Step 1

Open the Feedback Coach. Give it the strength and improvement area from interview_summary_CAND-FU-007.txt, with the evidence, and ask for short, respectful feedback with one next step.

Step 2

Remove any personality labels, comparisons with Serene or other candidates, and all scores.

Step 3

In Outlook, start a new email to Zhi Wei Chua, select Copilot > Draft with Copilot, and ask it to turn your feedback into a kind, clear email under 150 words.

Step 4

Open the Researcher agent (Agents in Copilot Chat) and ask: 'Provide a typical salary range for a Senior Data Analyst with 10+ years of experience in Singapore. Show your sources.' Open two sources, note their dates, and compare with the FutureTech band.

Step 5

Agree the offer figure with your partner (the panel's suggestion is SGD 9,500 a month, within the band) and write down why.

Step 6

In Word, ask Copilot: 'Draft a customisable offer letter for a Senior Data Analyst at FutureTech Solutions starting 1 December.' Replace every term not yet confirmed - probation, benefits, working hours - with a [placeholder] for Mei Ling Tan.

Step 7

Swap with your partner and check that every fact, figure and promise came from you, not from Copilot.

If something goes wrong

If Copilot's answer is generic, unfair or not based on your files, keep a copy, add the missing detail to your prompt (goal, context, source or expectations) and try again. If you cannot sign in or an agent does not open, tell your trainer and continue with the templates in this folder - never use real candidate data instead.

You are done when you have

A feedback email to Zhi Wei Chua, a sourced salary note, and Serene Ng's offer letter with unconfirmed terms as placeholders.
